Cut Scarf fabric:
42 inches long
13 inches wide

Cut the contrast band:
13 inches long
4 inches wide

1 Kitchen Towel:
Cut in half

*Fold the scarf fabric in half (the long way) and notch it at the center

*Fold the contrast band in half (long way) give it a little notch at the center point too.

*Place the contrast piece at the ends of the neck strip matching up the center notches.

*Find the center of the towel at the cut edge and clip a notch.

*Place the towel right sides down matching center notches.

*Fold towel in at 3 inch marks on each side, make a pleat on each side to fit in the towel width. (photo 2)

*Sew a $\frac{3}{4}$ inch seam connecting all layers.

*Press the seam up, do this on both sides of neck scarf.

*With right sides together fold neck scarf at long edge and sew a $\frac{3}{4}$ inch seam. (photo 3)

*Place on a sleeve board to press the seam open.

*Turn the scarf right side out. Place hand thru the tube and grab the end and pull it thru. (photo 4)

*Once it is right side out, adjust it so it is all centered and lightly press.

*Stitch the towel securely in place by "stitching in the ditch" between contrast band and scarf. (photo 5)

Congrats! You're done!
